“Corey Primus is a wonderfully talented singer/songwriter as well as a brilliant acoustic guitarist. Working with Corey is always fun and musically rewarding he is one of my favourite artists to work with, and a great human being to be around.” Andreas Schuld/Producer,Engineer/Guitarist

Bio: Born in Leroy Saskatchewan, now living in Vancouver, still much of the fodder for his song crafting came from being raised in BC’s northern interior. It always comes back to an acoustic guitar and a good song. After many years of music and many standout moments including opening for Canadian Rock Legend Burton Cummings and Paul Janz as well as sharing the stage with acclaimed singer/songwriter Stephen Fearing, Corey Primus is doing something new(ish). Setting aside his more familiar alt-folk sound Primus worked with Alan Poettcker (These Kids Wear Crowns & The Runaway Club) to create a more bass & drum oriented synth pop sound. The result is an infections and timeless set of songs that inspire repeated plays. Corey continues to create a wide variety of music encompassing folk/Acoustic/contemporary/Blues/Rock/Pop. His whole life has been playing and sharing his songs. It is all a part of the journey, all a part of the story and there is still more to tell.

“Fraser Valley artist Corey Primus has released Lateral Possibilities - for dreamers, and those looking for love. Alt-pop oriented, the four track is bright and welcoming (“I’m looking for magic, waiting for the right thing to come along/ Be it love or be it money, if it’s magic it can’t be wrong”). There’s a timeless element, producer Alan Poettcker (of These Kids Wear Crowns and The Runaway Club) playing with charming charming synth pop/wave notes.” Chloe Hoy/The Permanent Rain Press
