Lateral Possibilities

Corey Primus

"Corey Primus is a wonderfully talented singer/songwriter as well as a brilliant acoustic guitarist. Working with Corey is always fun and musically rewarding - he is one of my favourite artists to work with, and a great human being to be around." - Andreas Schuld, Producer/Engineer/Guitarist

"Corey is passionate about his music, and performance comes from his heart. The stage is a comfort zone for the performer, and he is at ease sharing his musical talent."
-Jackie Beaton, Editor, The Mackenzie Times

the newest CD by Corey Primus, was an intentional (and happy) foray into a more pop oriented sound. Setting aside his standard alt-folk sound Primus worked with Alan Poettcker (These Kids Wear Crowns & The Runaway Club) to create a more bass & drum oriented synth pop sound. The result is an infectious and timeless set of songs that inspire repeated plays. The 4 song EP is anchored around Rain On Me, a cowrite with Poettcker and Alexander Johnson (These Kids Wear Crowns). The heartbreaking song's beautiful melody builds to an epic conclusion. The final song sums up this delightful pop venture with the question, Is This What You Want(?). Perhaps there is more waiting in the wings??
